

PAPERS OF GEORGE MORGAN KNIGHT, JR.

Mr. Knight lived as a child in Petersburg, Va., but returned to Leonardtown with his parents as a young man. He was a writer. There are samples of his fiction and newspaper stories, as well as records of his attempts as a publisher of books and songs—his own and those of others. His interest in the history of Saint Mary's County resulted in many news accounts and a full-length book. There are many photographs of Saint Mary's County scenes and people, but most are not identified. [1956.001+ This collection is completely described, except for the photographs.]
